SITUATION

Arthurstone House sits in the picturesque Vale of Strathmore and lies between the Sidlaw Hills to the south and the Grampian Mountains and Angus Glens to the north. The village of Meigle lies approximately two miles to the east and provides excellent village facilities including a post office/grocery store, primary school, village hall and church. The village of Ardlar is about one mile to the south and is easily accessible through the network of footpaths that surround Arthurstone House. Further afield, the town of Blairgowrie is home to a range of facilities such as a secondary school, major supermarkets, independent and specialist retailers and restaurants. Private schooling is available at the High School of Dundee, Craigclowan, Strathallan, Kilgraston as well as a number of other schools in the Perth area.

The nearby village of Alyth, six miles to the north, provides a first class health centre as well as shops, churches and a public library. The city of Perth lies approximately 17 miles to the south-west and provides an excellent range of national retailers, banks, cinemas, theatre, concert hall, restaurants, sports facilities, and a bus and railway station. Dundee, home to the V & A museum, is around fifteen miles to the south-east and is home to two universities, shopping centres, supermarkets, the Olympia swimming pool and leisure centre, railway and bus stations as well as an airport with flights to London Stanstead. Edinburgh airport is about 57 miles to the south and Edinburgh city centre can be reached in about 1 hour 30 mins by car where large city amenities can be enjoyed including cultural activity, retail and leisure facilities.

The surrounding area of Perthshire offers a wealth of recreational opportunities and is well suited to the outdoor enthusiast for walking, cycling and horse riding. The area around Arthurstone House is home to a wide array of wildlife and there is easy access to particularly outstanding and varied countryside with hills, woodland, river and rolling farmland. There are three golf courses available in Perth, two in Alyth, Rosemount in Blairgowrie, as well as numerous championship courses at St Andrews and the pretty Angus Glens such as Isla, Prosen and Lethnott are easily accessible. The beautiful sandy beaches of Lunan Bay and St Cyrus and the red sandstone cliffs at Arbroath are all within reach and there are a number of interesting National Trust properties in the area including the House of Dunn at Montrose, Barry Mill near Carnoustie and the J. M. Barrie house, once home to the famous author in Kirriemuir.

DESCRIPTION

Arthurstone House is a stunning country mansion with a rich history dating back to the late 1700s, in its past it has served as a private home, then a preparatory school before being sympathetically converted into fifteen bespoke houses and apartments in 2005.

Redmyre is a charming second floor apartment which sits in the heart of the original house and enjoys lovely views over the gardens. The property is accessed via an impressive shared access hall which enjoys generous proportions, volume and a stunning original stained glass window.

Upon entering Redmyre itself the entrance vestibule leads to a lovely dining kitchen with a integrated appliances and ample light. Off the kitchen is the sitting room, a stunning space with a unique circular shape. Overlooking the surrounding ground it enjoys ample natural light and is a delightful space for entertaining guests. The generous double bedroom has dual aspect views and is spaciouly proportioned.
