DESCRIPTION

Located within an elevated position, discreetly set back from the road, Sunfield Cottage is a beautifully presented two-story extended cottage that features generously proportioned rooms and stylish accommodation throughout. The original cottage site dates back to circa 1850 and would have been positioned to benefit extensively from the natural landscape surrounding it. To this day, the landscape has an attractive appeal, however, the main cottage has undergone many changes with extensive extension and remodelling. The home retains some elements of its original frontage but with both interior and exterior now designed and created for modern family life. The extensive front stone flag patio and timber deck offer a wealth of entertaining and outdoor space and creates a welcoming approach. The traditional timber front porch, modern conical turret feature and the commanding floor to ceiling window to the master bedroom combine to give somewhat of a striking first impression.

The main entrance leads into a light-filled reception hall featuring warm wood flooring and a carpeted staircase to the upper level.

A door leads through into the kitchen and dining room which share an impressive open-plan space. French doors open out to the front decking and allow a high ingress of natural light to flood in. The kitchen features a range of wall, base and tall units, integrated appliances and contrasting work surfaces, the area also benefits from a breakfast bar with high seating for informal dining. From the entrance hallway, the utility room can be accessed and an adjacent door leads through to the integral double garage. A WC is also handily located here as well.

Moving back through the entrance hall to the opposite side of the property, the versatile public rooms create a wealth of opportunity for any growing family, the continual flow of hardwood flooring adds to the feeling of light and space. The lounge has triple-aspect front windows and a view of the rear garden. An attractive focal point of the room is the log-burning stove which offers a warm atmosphere to the immaculate room. The reading room features an array of bookshelves and a glass door to the exterior the flooring here combines carpeting with wood, ideal for a workspace or office if required. Completing the ground floor accommodation is a third public room which the current homeowners use as a TV or movie room. There is ample space for a variety of free-standing furniture here and décor is soft with neutral grey carpeting.

On the upper level, the master bedroom is an exceptional room, with floor to ceiling windows, and the natural light is extensive. The room proportions are generous and are further enhanced by a luxurious and well-appointed en-suite along with a walk-in wardrobe offering both hanging and shelved storage options. A study room or nursery is adjacent to the master bedroom and features the conical shape of the ground floor. Three good-sized double bedrooms are all equally well presented with soft neutral tones and quality carpeting. A family bathroom on this level has a spa-like quality with a Jacuzzi bath and a separate shower enclosure.

With an excellent balance of practical living and flexible living/ entertaining spaces, both inside and out, this home offers the full package.
