SITUATION

Bayfield House lies close to Nigg village on the Tarbat peninsula in Easter Ross. The property is in a stunning setting, surrounded by mature wooded grounds and with spectacular views over the Cromarty Firth to the Black Isle. A B listed, Georgian country house of note in the area, Bayfield House has been converted into six separate flats, four of which are in the main portion of the house.

The area is popular for its dry climate, wonderful coastal light and fertile farmland culminating in a coastline of sheer cliffs and sandy beaches dotted with historic fishing villages. This varied landscape offers many opportunities for a wide range of rural sports and recreation and the renowned links golf courses, including the world famous Royal Dornoch Championship Course, attract visitors from all over the world.

The nearby village of Portmahomack has a post office, shop and restaurants, while nearby Tain has an excellent range of shops and amenities including primary and secondary schooling. Inverness, about 45 minutes' drive away, has all the facilities of a modern city including its airport with regular flights to the South and Europe.

DESCRIPTION

No 1, Bayfield House is on the ground floor of the central portion of the house. On purchase in 2017, the sellers renovated the property to create extremely comfortable and well-presented two bedroom accommodation. The interior retains many original features including beautifully proportioned rooms, picture rails, cornicing, and working shutters. The flat has previously been a successful holiday let however the sellers have now closed bookings for 2025.
