SITUATION

Scaristavore is a scattered crofting township on the west coast of Harris. The property is set back from the road and from its slightly elevated position has spectacular views to the beautiful white sands of Scarista beach towards Northton Hill and the Isle of Taransay. The beach is a short walk across the machair from the cottage. The island of Lewis and Harris is in the Outer Hebrides and the largest island in Scotland. A place of diverse landscapes, fascinating history and a strong cultural heritage, the island is the ultimate get away from it all destination. The coastline is dotted with beaches ranging in size from the small to the three miles wide Luskentyre and Scarista beaches, all with stunning views over clear blue seas to the neighbouring islands of the Outer Hebrides. The nearby village of Northton boasts a craft bakery selling baked good and produce and has a visitor centre. Leverburgh, about six miles away, has a community shop, a community hub, and a brewery/deli/restaurant and a primary school, while secondary schooling along with more shops and restaurants are available in Tarbert. Harris links golf course is within walking distance and Scarista House, a renowned small hotel and restaurant is a short stroll away. Neighbouring Borge Estate and Leverburgh offer salmon and trout fishing. Stornoway, about a 1.5 hours' drive away, has a wider range of shops and facilities along with its airport and mainland ferry terminal. Ferries to Skye and Uist depart from Tarbert and Leverburgh.

DESCRIPTION

No 8 Scaristavore is a charming traditional cottage retaining many original features including wood panelled walls, three fireplaces, antique doors and banister, and stone dyke. The bright and comfortable interior is filled with coastal light and the property has been well-maintained with recent improvements including the installation of a wood burning stove in the sitting room, complete redecoration and the fitting of new carpets and floor coverings throughout. The sitting room is a bright, double aspect room and leads to the back hall, kitchen, and bathroom. The double aspect dining kitchen features views to the hills behind and across the glebe to the picturesque former manse. A double aspect bedroom on the ground floor could also be used as a reception room if desired. Like the ground floor bedroom, the two first-floor bedrooms have fireplaces and lovely sea views. There is also a first floor WC.
