LOCATION

The site is located a short distance to the south of Kirkmichael in the heart of Strathardle. The village has a well-stocked village shop together with a hotel and primary school. Immediately to the north of the site is another hotel called Strathardle Lodge. Blairgowrie lies approximately 13 miles to the south and has a wide range of services including national and local retailers, supermarkets, medical services and secondary schooling. The village has a well-stocked village shop together with a hotel, village hall, fire station and primary school.

The area is popular with outdoor enthusiasts many woodland walks and hill walking available nearby, Glenshee ski centre can be reached in under 1 hour which offers snow sports and mountain biking. Fishing is available on the nearby rivers Ericht, Isla and Tay and there are two championship golf courses in Blairgowrie. Kirkmichael village dates back over 1,000 years and was once an important market in the cattle trade between the Highlands and Lowlands, with various drove roads converging on the village. The area became popular as a holiday resort following Queen Victoria's building of Balmoral Castle in nearby Deeside. Traditionally these properties were occupied for the start of the grouse shooting season, which includes the all-important Glorious Twelfth.

DESCRIPTION

The subject of comprise a site extending to approximately 1.21 acres (0.49 hectares) with frontage onto the public road with Strathardle Lodge to the north and a residential property to the south.

The site is generally level and down to grass with direct access of the public road to the west.

PLANNING

The subjects benefit from planning permission in principle for residential development granted by Perth and Kinross Council on 17th April 2025 under ref: 24/01736/IPL.

It is estimated that the subject has reasonable capacity for 4 to 5 units, but would also be suitable for a single house or two houses, subject to obtaining the necessary consents.
