Situation

Cherry Tree Cottage is a charming rural residential property, just 3 miles from the golden sands of Luce Bay and the picturesque seaside village of Sandhead, on the Rhins of Galloway peninsula.

Sandhead hosts a primary school, shop and post office, Doctor's surgery, well established hotel and restaurant, church, bowling club, football pitch, park and community garden. Stranraer is the nearest town where there is a large secondary school, primary schools, hospital (Galloway Community Hospital), supermarkets, shops, offices, hotels and restaurants.

Logan Botanic Gardens, Scotland's most exotic garden, is approximately 7 miles from Cherry Tree Cottage and a variety of tropical plants flourish here in the warmer climate, a result of the Gulf Stream prevalent in this part of the region. The Mull of Galloway, Scotland's most southerly point, is just 15 miles distant, where you can visit the Lighthouse and Exhibition, walk around the RSPB Scotland nature reserve, and enjoy food and drink at Scotland's most southerly coffee house.

Dumfries and Galloway has some of the most enviable walks in Scotland, the official starting point of the Southern Upland Way is at Portpatrick, just 7 miles from Cherry Tree Cottage. Sandhead Circular Walk and the Mull of Galloway Trail are popular walks and there are a number of designated paths near the property.

Curling, golf and horse riding are also very popular, Stranraer & District Riding Club offers training and holds regular events. Curling is available at the North West Castle Hotel, Stranraer and there are numerous golf courses in the area including Dunskey Golf Club, Stranraer Golf Club and Wigtownshire Golf Club. The Ryan Centre within Stranraer town centre is a multi-purpose leisure facility offering a wide range of activities and events including leisure pool, health suite, games hall, theatre which provides a year-round programme of shows and productions.

Communications in the area are good, there is a regular bus service and trains to Ayr and Glasgow are available at Stranraer and the port of Cairnryan, just over 6 miles from Stranraer, there are two ferry operators running passenger and freight services to Northern Ireland.

Description

Cherry Tree Cottage is an idyllic rural retreat, ideally situated just a short distance from the coast and local amenities, offering a lifestyle that perfectly balances tranquillity with convenience. Set within approximately one acre, the paddock provides excellent potential for those seeking small-scale livestock ownership or equestrian use. Beyond the boundary, gently rolling farmland creates a picturesque outlook—perfect for relaxing and enjoying the peaceful countryside setting.

The welcoming entrance vestibule flows seamlessly into the main hallway, with access to Bedrooms One and Two. Bedroom One benefits from a stylish en-suite shower room, fully tiled for a contemporary finish. Both bedrooms feature quality oak fittings and solid wood flooring, enhancing the cottage's warm and characterful appeal.

The main bathroom is beautifully appointed, featuring a freestanding roll-top bath and a wet room-style shower. Finished with white tiling throughout, the space is bright, elegant, and thoughtfully designed.

A recent extension has created an impressive triple-aspect sitting room, complete with a vaulted ceiling and two sets of French doors opening onto the patio. This space is perfectly suited for modern living—offering seamless indoor-outdoor flow during the warmer months, ideal for al fresco dining, while in cooler seasons, the wood-burning stove provides a cosy focal point. Limestone flooring throughout the kitchen, dining, and sitting areas enhances natural light and complements the underfloor heating.

The kitchen/dining area is both stylish and functional, featuring a Rangemaster Classic Deluxe 90 electric cooker, a Belfast-style sink, and Silestone 'Classic Calacatta' worktops. Integrated appliances include a dishwasher, fridge freezer, and washing machine.

A large picture window overlooks the paddock, while a rear door provides access to the garden and decking area, complete with a hot tub—perfect for relaxation and entertaining. The property benefits from oil-fired underfloor heating, powered by an external Worcester boiler, in addition to the wood-burning stove. Water is metered and currently billed at approximately £24 per month via direct debit, payable to Pure Utilities.

Cherry Tree Cottage presents a versatile opportunity, whether as a family home, a countryside retreat, or a potential holiday let. With fibre connectivity available for installation, it also supports modern home working in a peaceful rural setting. The property is offered as seen, with furniture and fittings available by separate negotiation.
