Situation

Oir Na Mara is an attractive detached family home situated in a stunning location on the West Coast of Scotland, a short distance from the village of Benderloch. Benderloch is located about 2.7 miles to the southwest, it offers a range of local amenities such as a church, pub, village hall, local primary school and an exclusive use venue, Barcaldine Castle. The picturesque coastal town of Oban is a further 10 miles to the south, it is a popular destination within rural Argyll and offers a wide range of shops, restaurants, primary and secondary schooling, leisure centre, golf course and a number of professional services. The area is well connected by an excellent road network, and the local train station operates on the famous West Highland Line to Glasgow. Oban Port operates regular ferry services to Mull and Outer Isles destinations with North Connel Airport, about 8 miles to the south, offering regular flights to Colonsay, Coll and Tiree. The county of Argyll is known for its stunning scenery, extensive wildlife and choice of outdoor pursuits including walking, climbing, cycling and its wide range of water sports. The area is populated with lochs, rivers and canals to explore as well as numerous castles, distilleries, national parks and forests.

Description

Oir Na Mara is a spacious modern home located in an elevated position with panoramic views over Loch Creran. The house is accessed from a private drive, and the property is enclosed by stock proof fencing. The property was built in 2022 and has been finished to an impeccably high standard with modern fixtures and fittings throughout.
