SITUATION

Tomatin Building Plot is on the edge of Tomatin, a village lying to the south of Inverness. The site lies just off the public road and from its slight elevation has delightful views over wooded farmland to the moorland beyond.

Tomatin has a shop, café, primary school and village hall, while Inverness, about a twenty minute drive away, has all the facilities of a modern city including its airport with regular flights to the south and Europe. This prosperous and expanding city benefits from excellent communications and inward investment and yet, as it has grown, has lost none of its Highland cultural identity, seen in its strong sense of community and thriving arts scene.

The surrounding countryside is varied, from the fertile, rolling farmland of the coast to the inland moorlands and rugged mountains. This unspoilt landscape provides a haven for many rare and protected species of wildlife as well as a wide range of rural leisure and sporting opportunities, from way-marked walks and cycle trails on the Black Isle, to skiing and adventure sports in the Cairngorms National Park.
