SITUATION

Woodhaven is situated in the quiet village of Kirkcolm in the North Rhins Peninsula, approximately one mile from the shores of Loch Ryan. The village has a primary school, within walking distance of the property, a church, bowling club, hotel/restaurant and a number of designated walking routes including Corsewall Estate's woodland walks and coastal paths. Although there is no shop at present, a Community Hub has been formed by the Community Trust where it is possible have a cup of tea or coffee with locals. Events are arranged at The Hub for all members of the community including kids crafts, quiz nights, jewellery making and a brass band night, to name but a few, and staff are on the premises five days week.

The nearest town Stranraer, benefits from a secondary school, primary schools, hospital (Galloway Community Hospital), supermarkets, shops, offices, hotels, restaurants, and the Ryan Leisure Centre and Theatre. Stranraer has a marina located at the southern end of Loch Ryan and hosts an annual Oyster Festival annually to promote the wonderful Loch Ryan oysters and other local food and drink. The Loch also hosts major sporting events including the Skiffie Worlds. Both curling and horse riding are very popular in the area, nearby Stranraer & District Riding Club offers training and holds regular events, and curling is available at the North West Castle, Stranraer. There are also numerous golf courses nearby including Stranraer Golf Club, approximately 4 miles from Kirkcolm, and Dunskey Golf Club in Portpatrick, less than twelve miles from Kirkcolm.

This area of south west Scotland is home to some beautiful scenery, with numerous coastal villages around Luce Bay, and the nearby Galloway Forest Park offers walks and mountain bike trails, and is part of the UK's first Dark Sky Park, giving it breath-taking views of the night sky. Further south Logan Botanic Gardens, Scotland's most exotic gardens and Gallie Craig, a Cliff Top Coffee Shop are just two exceptional places to visit whilst in the area or on a day out.

Communications in the area are good, trains to Ayr and Glasgow are available from the station in Stranraer. The Port of Cairnryan is just over 6 miles from Stranraer and two ferry operators run passenger and freight services to Northern Ireland both Larne & Belfast.

Bedroom 2

DESCRIPTION

Woodhaven, built in 2008 is a spacious open plan three-bedroom detached property, tucked away in a quiet rural village. The layout and design of this property has been carefully considered in getting the best out of the location and outlook. This home offers far reaching views from the first floor with French doors opening to a Juliet balcony at either side, presenting views over the village to Loch Ryan and to the garden and field behind.

An entrance vestibule opens into the hub of this property, the open plan living room/dining room, ideal entertaining space with family & friends, with French doors opening to the garden and a solid oak open tread staircase leading to the first floor.

The port of Cairnryan and the hills beyond can be seen from the kitchen window, a dual aspect room with integrated appliances including a Bloomberg double oven and grill, 5 ring gas hob, fridge and smart dishwasher. A separate room accessed from the hall could be utilised as a study, store or utility room, depending on the needs and requirements of the new owners.

There are two bedrooms and a family bathroom on the ground floor, both bedrooms have double fitted wardrobes, with easy access fabric roller doors. The bathroom, tiled throughout, has a bath with shower over.

The oak staircase opens to the centre of the first floor, an open plan area with a wood burning stove and sitting room area, a cosy space during the cooler nights and months, and in contrast at the front of the property there is a more informal space to relax with the French doors open, allowing you to sit and enjoy the far-reaching views. This open plan area with solid wood flooring offers great adaptability, the opportunity to transform the space into whatever the new owner requires.

The master bedroom also has a Juliet balcony, overlooking the back garden and field behind, double fitted wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom with a freestanding bath and a wet room style shower.

The ground floor level has floor tiles throughout with oil fired underfloor heating, to the first floor radiators have been installed. The central heating apparatus for the underfloor heating and a Worcester oil boiler are housed in the hallway cupboards.

Woodhaven benefits from low energy costs, with enhanced insulation and 12 roof mounted solar panels on the tiled roof generating electricity. In addition, between the hours of 11.30pm and 5.30am the cost per kwh is at a lower rate with the current provider (Octopus). White goods can be programmed to be on during this time and a vehicle could be charged at the charging point, maximising the benefits of this lower rate window.

There is parking in the drive for more than one vehicle and an electric car charging point.

Woodhaven offers a delightful property complimenting modern living with spacious open plan living and efficiency at the forefront.
