SITUATION

Located in the hamlet of Applecross on the Applecross peninsula in Wester Ross. The property is in a beautiful setting, set in the main street which follows the shoreline and with spectacular views across the Inner Sound to Raasay and Skye.

The Applecross Peninsula is famous for its beautiful and remote setting, stunning coastline and charming village with its traditional houses and popular Inn. In spite of its popularity, Applecross remains unspoilt and has a strong community, along with many walks and places of historic note.

There are good facilities in the area with a school and shop in Camusterrach as well as a resident doctor, weekly visiting fish and butcher vans, a petrol station and the famous Applecross Inn and Walled Garden Café. Lochcarron, about 45 minutes away, has a small supermarket while weekly boarding is available at Plockton Secondary School. Inverness, about 2 hours' drive away, offers all the facilities of a modern city including its airport with regular flights to the south and Europe.

DESCRIPTION

No 14 Shore Street was bought by the current owners in 2001 and since then the property has been well maintained and upgraded including the replacement of internal joinery, the installation of new double glazed windows to the front elevation, the fitting of a modern bathroom suite and installation of a multi-fuel burning stove in the dining room. In addition, a new boiler was fitted to serve the electric wet heating system in the spring of 2024. The accommodation is well laid out and comfortable with a cosy sitting room having an open fireplace and the dining room with multi-fuel stove has a kitchen off. On the first floor can be found the bathroom and both bedrooms. The reception rooms and bedrooms all enjoy sea views.
