SITUATION

No 5 Diabaig is in the charming coastal hamlet of Diabaig in Wester Ross. The property is in a beautiful, elevated setting with spectacular views over Diabaig Bay to Loch Diabaig and the Applecross peninsula. Comprising a main house, and a separate cottage and bothy, both of which are currently successful holiday lets, the property is set back from a peaceful single-track road and is just a short walk from the idyllic shoreline with its stone pier, excellent restaurant and breathtaking views over the loch. Boats can be launched here and there are extensive walks along the lochside.

The west coast of Scotland is famous for its mild climate, beautiful coastline and exquisite island views. The unspoilt countryside and traditional communities make this area popular with those seeking a change of lifestyle or a second home. The surrounding countryside offers some superb scenery with the opportunity for many outdoor pursuits including mountain climbing, hill walking, mountain biking, fishing and sailing.

Nearby Torridon village has a general store, two cafes, doctor's surgery, community centre and well-known country house hotel and inn. There are a wider range of services and amenities in Dingwall and Gairloch, while primary schooling is available in Shieldaig or Kinlochewe and secondary schooling in Gairloch. Inverness has all the facilities of a modern city including its mainline railway station and airport with regular flights to the south and Europe.
