SITUATION

Milovaig lies on the edge of Portree on the Isle of Skye. The property is in a delightful setting, surrounded by common grazings and with beautiful, elevated views over the town to Loch Portree.

The Isle of Skye is probably the best known of the Inner Hebridean islands off the west coast of Scotland. Famous for its romantic, historical associations and magnificent landscape dominated by the Cuillin mountains, the island is very popular attracting many tourists throughout the year as well as those who seek to enjoy a peaceful lifestyle in unspoilt surroundings.

The area is an ideal base from which to enjoy the island with many outdoor leisure pursuits available locally including hill walking, climbing, canoeing, sailing, mountain biking, and fishing. The unspoilt countryside provides a habitat for native wildlife with regular sightings of red deer, seals, otters and birds of prey, including buzzards, golden eagles, and sea eagles.

Portree, the main town on the island, is set on a sheltered bay on Loch Portree. The town has an excellent range of shops and facilities, including a cinema, swimming pool, a daily bus service to Glasgow and Edinburgh, and schooling up to secondary level. In addition, the town is the main hub on the island, hosting the Highland Games, half marathon and agricultural show.

DESCRIPTION

Milovaig, which was completed in 2015, has generous and beautifully presented family accommodation. The sellers were influential in the design of the house, and this is seen in the well-proportioned rooms, high quality finishes, solid wood features and natural light which fills the interior. The property is highly energy efficient with excellent levels of insulation, solar panels to heat the water and extensive use of glass maximising solar gain.
