SITUATION

Dunvegan House Plot is on the edge of Dunvegan village on the Duirinish peninsula on the northwest coast of the Isle of Skye. The plot is in a stunning setting, on the shores of Loch Dunvegan and with spectacular, uninterrupted views across the water to MacLeod's Tables.

Dunvegan is popular for its beautiful location and association with nearby Dunvegan Castle, the ancestral seat of the Clan MacLeod. The village has good shops and local facilities, while the area has excellent restaurants and hotels including the award winning Three Chimneys. Portree, the main town on the island, has a secondary school and a wider range of shops and amenities.

The Isle of Skye is the best known of the Inner Hebridean islands off the west coast of Scotland. Famous for its romantic, historical associations and magnificent landscape dominated by the Cuillin mountains, the island is very popular attracting many tourists throughout the year, as well as those who seek to enjoy a peaceful lifestyle in unspoilt surroundings.

There are many outdoor leisure pursuits available locally including hill walking, climbing, canoeing, sailing, mountain biking, and fishing, while unspoilt countryside provides a habitat for native wildlife with regular sightings of red deer, seals, otters and birds of prey.

DESCRIPTION

Full planning consent was granted on 8th March 2022 for two semi-detached cottages, this consent lapsed in March 2025 and a renewed consent for one house has been submitted. The site, which extends to approximately 0.23 acres, is gently sloping and the elevation gives excellent views across the loch. Access is directly from the public road and mains services are close to the site.

On the northern boundary of the site are the remains of a stone building offering the potential for a garden studio or summer house, subject to the necessary consents. There is pedestrian access from the garden to the loch side.

Details of the planning consent can be viewed at: <https://wam.highland.gov.uk/wam/simpleSearchResults.do?action=firstPage> Reference No: 22/00092/FUL
