SITUATION

Strathcarrick House and Toran Sligeach are in the scattered crofting township of Heights of Inchvannie near Strathpeffer. The property is in a beautiful setting with spectacular, panoramic views stretching from the Cromarty Firth in the east to the mountains of the west.

The surrounding countryside is unspoilt and as well as providing a habitat for rare native wildlife, is ideal for the outdoor enthusiast. There is a wide range of walks and mountain bike trails, challenging mountain climbs, and fishing for salmon and trout on local rivers, while the west coast, famous for its stunning coastline and sandy beaches, is within easy reach.

Strathpeffer expanded with the arrival of the railway in Victorian times when visitors came to take the famous spa waters. Today the village is popular for its handsome architecture, sense of community and as a base from which to enjoy the area with its easy access to Inverness and the west and east coasts. The village has a small supermarket, highly regarded primary school, restaurant, hotels and a modern doctors' surgery. The market town of Dingwall is just a ten minute drive away and has a wider range of shops and amenities including a modern secondary school, while Inverness, about 20 miles away, has all the facilities of a modern city including its airport with regular flights to the south and Europe.

The integrated garage on the west side of the house has been converted to create a gym, gun room, boot room and larder, but could easily be re-instated as a garage. The property has solar panels which heat the hot water and the shed has solar panels which is resold back to the grid.
