SITUATION

Bridge Bank is situated in a peaceful quiet road in the hamlet of Barbieston about 2 miles from the popular village of Coylton which has a primary school, shops and a medical practice. The County Town of Ayr on the Firth of Clyde has a wide range of amenities including cinema, excellent shopping and supermarkets, and first class private and state schools together with a good range of restaurants and sports facilities. There is a regular train service from Ayr to Glasgow and Glasgow Prestwick Airport is only about 12 miles distant and offers regular international flights.

Ayrshire is renowned for its many golf courses including the world-famous facilities at Turnberry and Royal Troon. There are exceptional yachting facilities at the Marinas in Troon, Largs and Inverkip. There are many opportunities for game sports in the region with some of South-West Scotland’s best salmon and trout fishing available in the area’s lochs and rivers. Alloway, south of Ayr, is famous as the birthplace of Robert Burns.

DESCRIPTION

Bridge Bank is a delightful rural property built over one and a half storeys of stone and render finish to the sides and rear under a slate roof. On entering the property, you are immediately impressed with the bespoke oak split entry staircase rising to two bedrooms, the master having an en suite fitted with Porcelanosa fittings and tiles. The ground floor has a large dining kitchen fitted with floor and wall mounted units under a complimentary worktop, integrated fridge, oven, microwave, dishwasher and electric hob with extractor fan. The utility room is off the kitchen and houses a chest freezer and is plumbed for a washing machine and tumble drier. The conservatory is also off the kitchen and overlooks the private garden. The bright and spacious sitting room has dual aspect windows and a double-sided wood burning stove so both the sitting room and kitchen benefit from the heat and captivating view of the flames. The family bathroom is fitted with Porcelanosa sanitaryware and tiling.

GARDEN

The front garden is down to lawn and is well stocked with a variety of shrubs and conifers, a monoblock drive provides parking for several vehicles. The rear garden is a peaceful haven sheltered with mature trees and overlooking the Coyle Water below. There are two greenhouses and a timber garden shed. There is an area of woodland of about 0.19 acres to the left of the house leading down to a pathway along the Water of Coyle.
