Hideaway lies close to Portmahomack on the Tarbat peninsula. The property is in an outstanding setting, positioned just above the beach on the southern shores of the Dornoch Firth and with panoramic views across the water to Easter Ross and Sutherland.

The Tarbat Peninsula is a promontory lying to the north of Inverness between the Dornoch and Cromarty Firths. The area is popular for its dry climate, wonderful coastal light and fertile farmland culminating in a coastline of sheer cliffs and sandy beaches dotted with historic fishing villages. This varied landscape offers many opportunities for a wide range of rural sports and recreation, from enjoying the sandy beaches to trout fishing on Loch Eye and golfing on one of the many links golf courses along the coast as far as Sutherland, including the world famous Royal Dornoch Championship Course. The village of Inver to the West of Hideaway can be reached along the beach – it has a Primary School and a restaurant. The nearby village of Portmahomack has a post office, shop, fish restaurant, hotels and highly regarded golf course, while nearby Tain has an excellent range of shops and amenities including primary and secondary schooling. Inverness, about an hour's drive away, has all the facilities of a modern city including its airport with regular flights to the South and Europe.

There are beautiful coastal walks directly from the house and Portmahomack itself is within easy walking distance along the beach. The unspoilt setting provides a haven for a wide range of wildlife with regular sightings of dolphins in the firth, migratory and ground nesting birds, while the owners manage the grounds at Hideaway to encourage diverse flora and fauna.

DESCRIPTION

The property, which was built in 1974, was purchased by the current owners in 2016 and they have carried out a number of improvements to create a delightful coastal house. This work includes insulation and larch cladding on the external walls, replacement of the roof tiles with box profile sheeting, upgrading the plumbing, general repairs and redecoration. The property now has comfortable and well-presented accommodation with finishes that complement the seaside setting. The rooms have full height ceilings and these, combined with the extensive use of glass, create a sense of space and light and extend the interior into the stunning coastal landscape.

ACCOMMODATION

Entrance Hall. Open plan Sitting Room and Dining Room. Dining Kitchen. En suite Bedroom. Two further Bedrooms. Bathroom.

GARDEN GROUNDS

The property is approached from the public road, a driveway over which the owners have a right of access leading to a gate opening to a drive and then to a parking area at the rear of the house.

The grounds extend to approximately 28.1 acres, including the foreshore. The garden, which extends to approximately 1.1 acres, is laid mainly to lawn with parts left unmown to encourage wildflowers and ground-nesting birds, while there are raised beds and sitting areas immediately around the house. To one side of the drive is an enclosed fruit and vegetable garden with sheltered flagstone sitting area. From the front lawn, a gate opens to the foreshore where ownership extends to the low water mark.

The grazing land, which extends to approximately six acres, lies to the west of the house and is divided into a number of fenced paddocks, currently used for grazing sheep.
